

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is simply unacceptable.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Airing a partisan piece, without granting equal air time to the opposing viewpoint, is not only irresponsible, but is also a clear abuse of Sinclair's privilege to use the public airwaves.